FROM THE OLD WORLD.

[From the great London (Eng.) Times.

[Prom the great London (Eng.) Times.

Among the many specifics introduced to the public for the cure of dyspepia, indigestion, derangements of various kinds, and as a general fam ly medicine, none have met with such gendine approach tion as Hop Bitters. Introduced to thi country but a comparatively short time since, to meet the great demand for a pure, safe, and perfect family medicine, they have rapidly increased in favor until they are, without question, the most popular and valuable medicine known. Its world-wide renown is not due to the advertising it has received; it is famous by reason of its inherent virtues. It does all that is claimed for it. It discharges its curative powers without any of the evil effects of other bitters or medicine, being perfectly safe and harmless for the most frail woman smallest child, and weakest invalid to use. Few feetly safe and harraless for the most frail woman smallest child, and weakest invalid to use. Few are the homes indeed where the great discovery has not already been halled as a delive or and welcomed as a friend. It does what others affect to do. Com-source of simple materials, it is a marvel of deli-cate and successful combination. Nothing is wasting. Every ingredient goes straight to the mark at which it is aimed, and never falls. Plea### sant to the palate, agreeable to the stomach, and thoroughly effective as a cure, it has won for itself the confidence of all.— Times, London, Eng. A FEW UNSOLICITED LETTERS FROM THOUSANDS RECEIVED.

KATZENBACH OF, GERMANY, August 28, 1881. Hop Bitters Company: Dear Sirs,—I have taken your most precious es-sence, Hop Bitters—and I can already, after so short a time, assure you that I teel much better than I have felt for months.

I have had, during the course of four years, three times an inflammation of the kidneys. The last in January, 1880, was the worst; and I rook a lot of medicine to cure the same, in consequence of which my stomach got terribly weakened. I suf-fered from enormous paints and to bear great tor-ments when taking nourishment, had sleepless mend the Ditters to all who suffer, for I am sere I cannot thank the Lord enough that I came across your preparation, and I hope He will maintain you a long time to come for the welfare of suffering

PAULINE WAUSSLER, FROM PORTUGAL AND SPAIN. Gentlemen. - Though not in the habit of praising parent medicines, which for the most part are not only useless but injurious, I have constantly used liop Bitters for the past four years in cases of indi-getion, debility, feebleners of constitution, and in all diseases caused by poor or bad ventication, want of air and exercise, overwork, and want of appetife with the most perfect success.
